

Weiss, Alfred H

Co H 381st

Alfred H. Weiss of Teaneck, NJ died on December 3rd, 2016 at the age of 92. Beloved husband of the late Anita, cherished father of Micah & his wife Bridget of Boonton, NJ. Dear brother of Judy Goldberg and Ester Kaufman.

Alfred was a member of the Teaneck Jewish Center, Teaneck, NJ for over 45 years. He enjoyed woodworking and became an expert in this hobby.

Alfred served our country as a WWII US Army Veteran with the 96th Infantry Division. He was a member of the Veteran organization Deadeyes of the Leyte & Okinawa Campaigns, www.96deadeyes.org. Alfred has also been featured on the History Channel of Great Battles of the Pacific.

The funeral service will be held 12:30 PM on Tuesday December 6th at our chapel 402 Park Street, Hackensack, NJ 07601.

Friends may begin to arrive at 11:45 for ample time to pay respects to the family.

Interment will follow at Cedar Park Cemetery, Paramus, NJ.

Donations may be in Alfred's memory to the Charity of your choice.

Please take a moment to sign the online guess book. You may leave a note for the family or perhaps a memory you would like to share.

A Virtual Candle may also be placed in the guestbook if you wish.

We at Gutterman and Musicant wish to express our heartfelt thanks on behalf of the mourners for your support during this difficult time.
